

Type of Incident

Finger Injury

Summary:

During the assembly of a product, an employee struck their finger with a hammer which resulted in them requiring hospital treatment.

No pictures

Root Causes:

- PPE which was being worn was not sufficient to protect the employees hand / fingers from a hammer strike
- Lack of awareness

Actions Taken Thus Far: Next Steps

- Review risk assessment
- Tool box talk to all employees to communicate site expectations whilst using hammers